Notes

“Rehabilitation periods”

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act (ROA) (as amended) refers to periods of “rehabilitation” after which a sentence is considered “spent”. Rehabilitation periods vary according to the original sentence and age. For example, for a person aged 18 or over sentenced to imprisonment for a period of between 6 months and 2½ years the period to become “rehabilitated” is 10 years. The period for a person aged 17 or under, sentenced to the same period of imprisonment, is 5 years.

Suspended sentences (treated as having taken effect) are treated the same as for a custodial sentence.

“Spent convictions”

Once a conviction is “spent” the rehabilitated person normally does not have to reveal its existence in most circumstances and can answer “NO” to the question “Do you have a criminal record?”

“Exceptions”

Whilst the “spent” provision normally applies, there are certain occupations which are excepted (see below) including working in positions of trust with children and other vulnerable groups; the intention of which is to ensure that they are protected from those in positions over them. No exceptions apply to “unspent” convictions and candidates for all appointments can be asked to disclose such convictions.

“Unspent convictions” (no exceptions)

Unspent convictions are custodial sentences of more than 2½ years. They are also those sentences of less than 2½ years where the rehabilitation period has not yet expired.

“Disclosure”

Is a means of checking criminal records which is carried out by the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS). Any offer of appointment to an “excepted” post is subject to disclosure and satisfactory outcome of assessment.

Examples of the exceptions include those listed below but, in any event, we undertaken to advise all applicants (see also Job Description) when an advertised post is “excepted” and subject to “disclosure”.

Examples of excepted occupations include:

Any employment or other work which is concerned with the provision of care service to vulnerable adults and which is of such a kind to enable the holder of that employment or the person engaged in that work to have access to vulnerable adults of such services in the course of his normal duties.

Employment concerned with the provision to persons under 18 of accommodation, care, leisure and recreational facilities, schooling, supervision or training.
